

No Limits News – October/November/December 2008

Dear Dance Family,

Our season is off and running this year especially at the Oakleaf location. There are still some classes we can accept students at the Oakleaf location. However, we are almost at full capacity with the classes we have open. We encourage our Ortega students invite friends and/or family members to come to a trial class. There is no obligation or commitment with taking a trial class.

Late Fee

A late fee of $25 will automatically post to the student account when tuition is paid after the 10th of each month.

Dance Attire

We still have some students not wearing the appropriate dance attire and/or having their hair secured in the proper manner. Please take the time to visit our website at www.nolimitsdance.com under studio information to review information regarding class attire. Also, be sure to write your child's name in their shoes and clothing. The instructors are reviewing the class attire rules with the students in each class as necessary.

Punctuality

Effective September 1, 2008, a student will be denied access to a class in progress in the event that student's arrival to the studio does not coincide with his or her getting to said class at its scheduled start time. For example, should a student arrive early for class but instead eat or socialize until such time as the class commences without the student, in deference to those who were on time and so as to not disrupt the lesson, the student must forego the class. Should this occur, please see class instructor immediately after class is excused for makeup considerations. Please be on time and protect your investment. As always, the instructor has the option to allow late entrance at his or her discretion. This does not pertain to those students who have a transportation problem.

Dance Recital Pictures

Mr. Erdelyi will continue to take your orders for the June 2008 recital. Pictures of your favorite dancer(s) would be a great Christmas present for a special family member. Be sure to contact Mike Erdelyi at peacemaker2@comcast.net to place your order now.
